

Farewell Col Sam Sholo Diole

Rustenburg – A farewell function was held at the Bietjie Bini Bos game lodge near Rustenburg on Friday, 30 June 2017. Friends and colleagues gathered to bid Col Diole a sad farewell. In his speech, programme director, Col Oupa Raphata said that Col Diole served with excellence and made a name for himself. Col Diole joined the Police 37 years ago when he signed up for the former Bophuthatswana Police during 1980. He completed his training at the Hammanskraal police training college and was sent to Bloemfontein. From there he was deployed to Kuruman. He wanted to be closer to his family, but God had other plans with his life. He wrote examinations to eventually be promoted to become a sergeant, and after that, a warrant officer. He fondly remembers buying his first "tjorrietjie" and getting married. In 1994 he attended an officer's course in the Paarl and during 1998 he was transferred to Mogwase. The Police then transferred him to Koster during a restructuring process where he remained for two years. In 2000 he was transferred to Rustenburg as the Vispol commander. He remained in this post until 2017 when he became the cluster Vispol commander. He enjoyed being at the office early in the morning and would scrutinize the crime reports and bring the general up to speed with what was happening in the cluster. He made a plea to his fellow officers to serve the country with diligence and pride. He loved his work – to him it was a calling. He reminded all in attendance that, "Nothing is gained without a tough fight. He briefly referred to the challenging time as he worked in Marikana during the time of the Marikana massacre. He witnessed how a warrant officer was hacked to death in the days before the Marikana incident. Col Diole thanked his wife and children, as well as his parents and the Police for supporting him to succeed. Gen Adams, the Rustenburg cluster commander gave a touching tribute to colonel Diole. "Col Diole always treated people with respect. Everyone was equal, irrespective of rank." A very special gift was handed to colonel Diole – a tribute to him as officer, with rank insignia, displayed in a framed glass setting. During the vote of thanks brigadier Pheto, deputy cluster commander in Rustenburg, reminded everyone that we all have a purpose in life. "Col Diole has served the people of SA with pride and dignity. It is only by the grace of God that we walk this planet. We have a responsibility to protect the weak, the old, the defenceless – this is our job."
