

AfriForum-takke in Marico-distrik oorhandig plaasaanvalmemorandum aan SAPD

Rika van Staden oorhandig die memorandum aan kaptein Joanie Heymans by die SAPD in Koster.

Die memorandum soos oorhandig aan die SAPD in Brits.

Rustenburg/ Marico-distrik – AfriForum se takke in Hartbeespoort, Brits, Mooiooi, Rustenburg, Swaruggens, Koster, Lichtenburg en Coligny het op Dinsdag, 21 November, memorandum aan die plaaslike polisieasies in dié dorpe oorhandig om die fokus op plaasaanvalle te vestig. "Dit is vir AfriForum belangrik om 'n goeie verstandhouding met die Suid-Afrikaanse Polisie diens te hê en ons is dankbaar vir elke polisie lid wat hul samewerking tydens die oorhandiging van dié memorandum gegee het. Met hierdie aksie beklemtoon ons weereens die erns dat plaasaanvalle geprioritiseer moet word," sê Tiaan Oosthuizen, AfriForum se distrikskoördineerder vir Noordwes. AfriForum is tans besig om strukture wat gemik is op die bevegting van geweldsmisdaad in dorpe en op plase te skep en te versterk. Raak by AfriForum se buurtwagte betrokke: SMS "Veiligheid" na 45351 (R1).

MASSIVE FUEL HIKE!

"We expect illuminating paraffin to rise by around 76 cents a litre, diesel by 64 cents, and petrol by 72 cents," according to the Automobile Association (AA). Sharp movements in international petroleum prices have combined with a weakening Rand to push fuel prices higher for December. This is according to the AA, commenting on unaudited month-end fuel price data released by the Central Energy Fund (CEF). Oil has continued the strong run we have seen throughout November and the trend remains upwards. The Rand has followed a similar trend, weakening against the US dollar on average, although it has been surprisingly resilient in the days following South Africa's recent credit ratings downgrade. South Africa's economic situation remains weak, and our view is still that further fuel price hikes can be expected during the remainder of 2017 and into the first quarter of 2018. There is always the temptation to spend more on non-essential items during the holiday period, but we advise motorists to be prudent and keep a cushion against higher motoring costs in the new year. AA press release: 28 November 2017
