AFRIFORUM DRA BY TOT 'N GROENER TOEKOMS

Rustenburg – Die AfriForum-tak in Rustenburg het van 7 tot 11 Oktober nege peperbasbome by verskeie skole in Rustenburg geplant. Volgens AfriForum assistent koördineerder vir Marico, Sampie Steinberg, het AfriForum vanjaar reeds meer as 2,500 bome landwyd geplant. "Deur inheemse bome te plant bewaar ons nie net ons omgewing en maak dit 'n mooier plek om te bly nie, maar wys ons ook dat ons hoop het vir die toekoms. Bome is veel meer as bloot 'n belangrike deel van die ekosisteme of 'n noodsaaklike natuurlike hulpbron – bome is simbolies van lewe," aldus Sampie.

AfriForum fokus jaarliks op 'n boomspezie wat algemeen voorkom sowel as 'n skaars boomspezie. Die algemene boom vir 2019 is die maroelaboom, Sclerocarya birrea, terwyl die skaars boom die appelblaarboom Philenoptera violacea, is. AfriForum moedig sy lede aan om inheemse bome te plant wat in hul omgewing aard. "Elke boom wat ons plant maak 'n blywende verskil in ons gemeenskap. Bome het egter deurlopende sorg nodig om tot voordeel van almal te floreer en die AfriForum-tak in Rustenburg onderneem om hierdie sorg te verskaf," meen AfriForum Rustenburg-tak voorsitter Chris Trytsman.

LET'S TALK HONEY FESTIVAL HIGHLIGHTS

Rustenburg – The first-ever Rustenburg Honey Festival on Saturday 19 October was a huge success. Various stalls presented everything from chilli products, perfumes, olives, wax, various honey products, equipment and suppliers of food and beverages... honey enthusiasts were abuzz! Solidarity Rustenburg showcased an exhibition of alternative energy and equipment, driving the message of green energy to create a brighter future for the next generation. Cammy Anderson was crowned the most bee-autiful in the beauty pageant.

The highlight of the event was the honey competition scored by chief judge Eddy Lear and head steward doctor Lynne Hepplestone. The entry from Magoebaskloof won the first prize with their delicious honey! Thank you to the Hervormde Kerk who provided their terrain and facilities for the festival as well as Democratic Alliance (DA) ward 16 councillor Johan Cronje and Karlienpark Primary School principal Muneeb Omarjee who supported the festival. A big thanks to the South African Bee Industry Organisation and Southern Bee Farmers' Association.
