

242 NABBED FOR VARIOUS OFFENCES

Potchefstroom – A total of 242 suspects were apprehended for various offences during a two-day suspect raiding operation carried out by the police in different parts of the North West province. The raids were carried out from Wednesday 8 January to 9 January as part of the Safer Festive Season operations. Police spokesperson brigadier Sabata Mokgwabone said the suspects were arrested at all seven policing clusters for murder, assault with intent to do grievous bodily harm, robbery, sexual assault rape and other crimes related to sexual assault. Meanwhile, a man being accused of house robbery appeared before the Mmabatho Magistrates' Court on Friday 10 January. "Advice Moshotetsi (31) was remanded in custody until Thursday 16 January following his court appearance," Mokgwabone said. "The suspect, who was on the police's wanted list, was tracked down and arrested on Tuesday 7 January in Seweding village outside Mahikeng," he added.

LION PRIDE BUTCHERED

Gert Blom. The couple dedicate their lives to taking care of predators lions who cannot be returned to the wild. After the increase in lion killings and mutilations, they decided to block public access to the lions to protect them. Four suspects were arrested by the Hawks' Serious Organised Crime Investigation assisted by members of Crime Intelligence in a sting operation on 6 January while allegedly trying to sell lion paws in Rustenburg. Information was received regarding the suspects who were looking for a buyer for four lion paws that were in their possession. Investigations were conducted, resulting in a sting operation where the suspects tried to sell the paws to an undercover agent. All suspects were taken into custody and appeared before the Rustenburg Magistrate's Court on 8 January where they are facing charges of contravening the National Environment Management-Biodiversity (NEMBA) Act. Unfortunately, tests confirmed that the paws did not belong to any of the lions of Predators Rock Bush Lodge.
