RUSTENBURG BROUGHT TO A STANDSTILL

Rustenburg – Rustenburg was brought to a brief standstill as protesters closed off the N4 and R104 preventing vehicles from entering or exiting on Thursday 10 December. The road closure came after messages were circulated on social media calling to bring Rustenburg to a standstill due to unhappiness about certain aspects within the Rustenburg Local Municipality (RLM). In a statement by the RLM dated 8 December, they have noted with dismay the messages circulating on various social media platforms, calling for the 'shutdown' of Rustenburg and will take action to defend all the municipal assets, including pursuing various legal avenues available against any individual(s), who intend to cause disruptions in the city, as residents will become inconvenienced because of interruptions in service delivery. Luckily, Rustenburg Police acted swiftly, and protesters were quickly dispersed allowing traffic to flow freely again. Protesters then proceeded to the RLM building on the corner of Beyers Naude and Nelson Mandela drive where they closed off the roads again.

Police officers dispersed protesters under the bridge on the N4 near Waterfall Mall.

10-YEAR SENTENCE FOR FRAUDSTER ATTORNEY

Brits – Isak Snyman a 46-year-old attorney was sentenced on Tuesday 8 December by the specialised commercial crimes court in Pretoria for theft of trust funds. According to Hawks spokesperson captain Tlangelani Rikhotso, since 2010 the accused was employed in Brits to purchase and register properties on behalf of clients. The accused misappropriated about R4-million and deposited the money into his trust account to purchase properties. His clients reported him to the Hawks' serious commercial crime unit who investigated the allegations and had him summoned to court. Snyman pleaded guilty and was sentenced to 10-years, suspended for five years on condition that he repay the funds back in R50,000 monthly instalments.

CAR BUYERS BEWARE

Rustenburg – Scammers have used social media to swindle a Rustenburg resident out of R60,000 by asking for a deposit on a vehicle. They advertise fake vehicles for ridiculously low prices on various social platforms. They ask interested buyers for a deposit to hold the vehicle. At first, they ask for a small deposit, then a payment, then shipping. Most of the time these scams are successful because the buyer is eager to secure this great deal. Other times they use sad stories to gain sympathy or encourage the buyer to make a snap decision based on a hard-luck story claiming they have lost their job and cannot pay rent without selling the vehicle. "People pay over money as a type of holding fee, but the car never gets delivered and no further transactions take place. Even information on trustworthy websites cannot always be trusted and must be approached with caution. It is always better to do these transactions through reliable dealers. If you become a victim of these scammers and want to open a case you can contact the Rustenburg Police station," said police spokesperson captain Elsabé Augoustides. "If it sounds too good to be true it probably is!" she added.

MORE THAN 1,200 ARRESTED

North West – Police arrested 1,243 suspects in various areas of the North West province from Friday 16 October and 8 December as part of an initiative to clamp down on criminal activities during the runup to the festive season.

The Safer Festive Season operation, which also involved traffic police officers, resulted in the arrest of 141 suspects for contact crimes and 27 for property related offences. A further 173 were arrested for crimes such as illegal possession of firearms as well as driving under the influence of alcohol.

"During the operations and as part of enforcing compliance with the Liquor Act, 556 fines were issued for liquor related offences such as public drinking. In the process, shebeens were also shut down," police spokesperson brigadier Sabata Mokgwabone said.

"Furthermore, the operations led to the confiscation of seven firearms, ammunition, six knives, 12 sheep, liquor, illicit cigarettes, electronic and audio-visual equipment as well as various drugs such as nyaope, mandrax tablets, khat, crystal

meth and dagga," he added.

In addition, 1,168 fines and compliance notices relating to contravention of the Road Traffic Act, the Liquor Act and the Second-Hand Goods Act were issued to individuals and businesses.

North West provincial commissioner lieutenant general Sello Kwena welcomed the clampdown on those operating outside the confines of the law.

ZERO TOLERANCE FOR CRIME

North West – As part of a clampdown on crime in the North West province, detectives arrested 287 suspects on raids that took place from Thursday 19 to Friday 20 November.

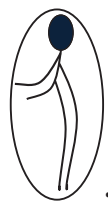

Of those arrested, 157 allegedly committed assault with intent to do grievous bodily harm (GBH) and common assault. They arrested the remainder for various offenses such as rape, theft, murder, possession of suspected stolen goods and drug-related crimes. Provincial commissioner lieutenant general

Sello Kwena congratulated the detectives for their efforts to protect the people of the North West province.

NW HIJACKINGS ON THE RISE

North West – Police are warning motorists travelling in the Bojanala District municipality to be on alert and not become victims of car hijackers.

A 40-year-old victim allegedly parked in front of a gate in Mokgethi Street, Tlhabane. As he got out of his blue VW Polo, he was forced at gunpoint to get back inside his car. According to police spokesperson colonel Adèle Myburgh, "He escaped by running away and two suspects drove off with his Polo."

In an unrelated incident two days later, a 44-year-old victim was allegedly traveling in a Nissan NP 200 bakkie along the N4 road near Swartruggens. A Hyundai i20 vehicle drove up behind him. Assuming the driver of the other vehicle intended to overtake, the victim drove to the left of the yellow line. One occupant of the Hyundai allegedly pointed a firearm at the victim and showed that he should stop. Two males exited the Hyundai and took control of the bakkie. They drove it to a nearby power station and robbed the cargo of boxed cellular phones. The suspects locked the victim inside the canopy of his bakkie before fleeing from the scene. The victim escaped by breaking the rear window of the bakkie.

In another incident on Sunday 22 November, the driver of a Toyota Verso, accompanied by a female friend, picked up four hitchhikers at Bothaville. While driving to the Ysterspruit Road in Jouberton, a black VW Polo stopped in front of his vehicle. The four hitchhikers in the victim's vehicle threatened to stab him and his friend with knives. They tied the two victims up and robbed them of cash and a cellular phone before driving off with the vehicle.

PLEASE AVOID FALLING VICTIM TO CAR HIJACKERS

- A well-maintained car is less likely to break down and leave you vulnerable.
- Plan your route and share the route, departure time and estimated time of arrival with someone that cares about your safety.
- Check the rear-view mirror for suspicious vehicles that might be following you.
- Avoid driving with open windows, keep the doors locked and keep valuables out of sight.
- Avoid distractions while driving such as using a cell phone.
- If you suspect you are being followed, drive to your nearest police station or a busy public area.

UNITE AGAINST GENDER-BASED VIOLENCE

Anglo American Platinum has introduced wide-ranging measures to combat gender-based violence (GBV) and harassment across its mines and mining communities in South Africa.

The company's 'Living with Dignity' programme was launched a year ago when it committed to a series of integrated interventions in South Africa to eliminate harassment and gender-based violence at work, and prevent violence against women in children in homes, schools and mining communities.

According to Anglo American's Hermien Botes, their existing Living with Dignity initiative to combat GBV in communities were 'dramatically' adjusted as the pandemic took hold this year. "It became clear in the early stages of the pandemic that economic distress, diverted public services, lock-down measures and many other factors were increasing incidents of domestic violence. We worked to fight the 'shadow pandemic' alongside the health and economic impacts of Covid-19," said Botes. These interventions included a mass communications campaign telling people how and where to get help; leveraging Anglo American's partnership with the University of Pretoria on community-orientated primary care (COPC) to identify and refer cases of domestic violence; and working with the National Shelter Movement (and De Beers with UN Women) to support 22 shelters in its mining areas with donations of food, PPE and financial aid for basics like data and transportation.

CRIME CLAMPDOWN CONTINUES

North West – The Safer Festive Season Operations are being implemented by the police so that people can feel safe in the North West Province – according to provincial commissioner, lieutenant general Sello Kwenia. Ongoing raids have led to the arrests of 505 suspects from Wednesday 25 and Monday 30 November.

The operations covered all five districts and netted suspects involved in assault, theft, malicious damage to property, residential and business burglary, and contravention of protection orders. Specialised units investigating stock theft, vehicle crime and family violence, child protection and sexual offences handled 35 arrests.

The police also issued 110 fines for liquor-related crimes which included 86 for drinking in public and 24 for illegal dealing in liquor. The operations led to the recovery and seizure of two stolen vehicles and a variety of drugs such as khat, dagga and tik.

On this sad occasion of the passing of her Royal Majesty, the Queen Mother of the Royal Bafokeng Nation, Mmemogolo Semane Bonolo Molotlegi. We are reminded of her strength, dignity, and pride as an African Woman.

RUS SAG ZETTIE

Lizette van der Walt

"The song has ended, but the melody lingers on." - Irving Berlin

Rustenburg – Lizette van der Walt (née Gouws) se skielike dood op Woensdag 2 Desember was 'n groot skok vir haar familie en vriende. Lizette was die dogter van Marie Gouws en wyle John Gouws. Sy het grootgeword as 'n plaasmeisie op Rustenburg – net soos haar sussies Melinda en Sonja. Lizette het haar hoërskool loopbaan voltooi in 1988 te Hoërskool Bergsig. 'n Paar jaar gelede was Lizette in 'n groot ongeluk en met Genade het sy dit oorleef, maar was vir jare steeds in geweldige pyn. "Jy is skielik van ons af weggeneem, met jou silwer stem en goue hart, was jy te broos vir hierdie wêreld. Rus sag by Jesus se voete my kind" sê haar Ma, Marie Gouws. Haar 1988 matriek klas beskryf haar as 'n vrou met 'n skaam glimlag en groot oë wat met net 'n kyk boekdele kon spreek. Sy was 'n dapper soldaatjie en het soos die son na buite geskyn. "Ons almal gaan jou vreeslik baie mis. Jy is nou op 'n beter plek." Ons innige meegevoel met die familie en vriende, julle is in ons gebede.

A FAREWELL BEFITTING A QUEEN

Phokeng/ Rustenburg – A sombre atmosphere engulfed the Phokeng Conference Centre on Tuesday 8 December as 140 people gathered for a memorial service for the late queen mother of the Royal Bafokeng Nation, Mmemogolo Semane Bonolo Molotlegi. The queen mother passed away on Saturday 5 December, and she will be buried in Phokeng on 12 December. Government officials, community members and relatives of the late queen attended the memorial service. The late queen is the mother of the current king of the Royal Bafokeng Nation, Kgosi Leruo and a paternal aunt of former Botswana president Ian Khama. Bishop Kevin Dowling from the Roman Catholic church, Doreen Khama, and Boshia Ramorwa spoke glowingly about the queen mother's development initiatives in Phokeng and other areas especially focussing on the empowerment of women and education. Spokesperson for the Bafokeng royal family kgosana Mojalefa Mogono told Platinum Weekly that the funeral service will be held at the same venue.

"The Royal family is very grateful for the overwhelming condolences and comfort they have received following the death of the queen mother," Mogono said. "It is unfortunate that we had to reduce the number of guests at both the memorial and funeral services because of COVID-19 restrictions."

EARLY CHRISTMAS AT RUSTENBURG RUSOORD OLD AGE HOME

Rustenburg – Christmas may still be some weeks away, but the festivities have already started for the residents of Rustenburg Rusoord old age home. On Saturday 28 November, the elderly folk living at the home thoroughly enjoyed themselves during a Christmas party organised for them by Zelda Vermeulen, Koeks Swart, Immortal Guardian Bikers and other community members who contributed to make the occasion a reality. Reghard van Zyl provided the entertainment with his array of songs and from the way that most of the residents danced along, it was clear they had an enjoyable time!

The elderly folk also enjoyed a hearty lunch and dessert as they sang along to the music.

"It took us a week to prepare this for them," Vermeulen told Platinum Weekly. "I would like to thank everyone involved in putting this together, including Immortal Guardian Bikers, who chipped in with a donation of R2,000."

Reghard van Zyl sang entertaining songs for residents.

Alida and Egbert Potgieter enjoyed the party.

Zelda Vermeulen (left) played a crucial role in organising the party.

LIGGIEFEES 2020 REUSE SUKSES

Rustenburg – Pieter Koen het as gaskunstenaar opgetree tydens die NG Proteapark se Liggiefees op Sondag 29 November.

Die Liggiefees is die uitloei van Ds Deon Strauss se droom om elke jaar iets aan die Rustenburg-gemeenskap terug te te gee, en ten spyte van COVID-19 het die Rustenburgers met maskers en kampstoele vroeg opgedaag om deel te wees van die onvergeetlike aand.

Hierdie jaar fokus die NG-Kerk Proteapark se Liggiefees op die Rustenburg Skool vir Buitengewone Onderwys vir leerders met spesiale onderwysbehoeftes. Die skoolgebou is ook die eerste skoolgebou in Rustenburg, wat bekend gestaan het as die Junior Skool. Daar is tans 103 leerders in die skool met verskeie geremdhede soos down-sindroom, outisme, en engelmann-sindroom. Meeste van die leerders kom uit baie erge sosio-ekonomiese omstandighede. Gelde wat ingesamel word gaan onder andere aangewend word vir skoolpakkette en vir die opgradering van die skool. By die Liggiefees het Pieter Koen die gehoor op hul voete gehad met die lied Ubuntu en It is well with my soul wat aanklank by groot en klein gevind het. Die Liggiefees het tot Woensdag 2 Desember geduur.

Weereens het die kerk die gemeenskap verbaas, om Opperman as gaskunstenaar tydens die Liggiefees te boek vir die eenmanvertoning Maandag 30 November. Hy is bekend as ouboet in die immergewilde Orkney Snork Nie, staan die skoen van die karakter Barry Swart vol in die eenmanvertoning Donkie.

Donkie handel oor mense se sienings – dat elke saak twee kante het. Sommiges kan anders voel as ander. Dis 'n huldeblyk aan onderwysers wat te midde van die aanslae steeds probeer om die blinkkant bo te hou en goeie onderwysers te wees!

Die NG Proteapark bedank elkeen wat sy weg oopgesien het om deel van hul fees te wees.

HE'S GOT THE LOOK!

Rustenburg – The 22-year-old Rustenburg-based Globe Model Look model Merlucy Mbele has only been in the modelling industry for a year, but he has already won The Mr Mooinooi 2019 and Mr Patrol 2020.

He is now a finalist for the for Mr Universe North West 2020 that is set to take place on Sunday 13 December at Grace Point Lodge. The 40 contestants will embark on a three-day bootcamp that will end with the crowning of Mr Universe North West.

"I never thought that I will see the day I represent my community in any form of the arts. Being a finalist for Mr Universe North West made me realise that it doesn't matter where you come from as long as you've got a goal and a direction, you'll reach places you never pictured," Merlucy said in an interview with Platinum Weekly.

"Alone I can go fast, but together we can go far, so I hope that I win the title to create a platform for me to work with social workers, community leaders and influencers," he boldly concludes. Tickets for the crowning cost R150 per person and include food and a drink.

For more information phone 068 004 6369 or visit the Mr and Miss Universe North West 2020 Facebook page.

Merlucy Mbele hopes to use his success to positively transform the North West province into a South African jewel.

UNDERGROUND, AND MOVING UP. IT'S A GLENCORE STORY.

Alice Magano, having grown up in Carletonville, received her underground training at Western Mine Training Centre in 2011, and soon became a pump attendant at Kroondal Mine. Later, as a belt attendant, she continued to work mostly underground, something she still does at the age of fifty-five. As a woman, she feels supported by her colleagues and supervisors, and is currently on her mine's Women in Mining Committee, having previously also worked both as an underground safety and union representative. Now, with Glencore paying for the course, she is studying fitting, with the aim of becoming a foreman. Alice's story is all part of what we mean at Glencore by progress, together.

PSALM 33

<sup>1</sup>Sing joyfully to the LORD, you righteous; it is fitting for the upright to praise him. <sup>2</sup>Praise the LORD with the harp; make music to him on the ten-stringed lyre. <sup>3</sup>Sing to him a new song; play skillfully, and shout for joy. <sup>4</sup>For the word of the LORD is right and true; he is faithful in all he does. <sup>5</sup>The LORD loves righteousness and justice; the earth is full of his unfailing love. <sup>6</sup>By the word of the LORD the heavens were made, their starry host by the breath of his mouth. <sup>7</sup>He gathers the waters of the sea into jars; he puts the deep into storehouses. <sup>8</sup>Let all the earth fear the LORD; let all the people of the world revere him. <sup>9</sup>For he spoke, and it came to be; he commanded, and it stood firm. <sup>10</sup>The LORD foils the plans of the nations; he thwarts the purposes of the peoples. <sup>11</sup>But the plans of the LORD stand firm forever, the purposes of his heart through all generations. <sup>12</sup>Blessed is the nation whose God is the LORD, the people he chose for his inheritance. <sup>13</sup>From heaven the LORD looks down and sees all mankind; <sup>14</sup>from his dwelling place he watches all who live on earth—<sup>15</sup>he who forms the hearts of all, who considers everything they do. <sup>16</sup>No king is saved by the size of his army; no warrior escapes by his great strength. <sup>17</sup>A horse is a vain hope for deliverance; despite all its great strength it cannot save. <sup>18</sup>But the eyes of the LORD are on those who fear him, on those whose hope is in his unfailing love, <sup>19</sup>to deliver them from death and keep them alive in famine. <sup>20</sup>We wait in hope for the LORD; he is our help and our shield. <sup>21</sup>In him our hearts rejoice, for we trust in his holy name. <sup>22</sup>May your unfailing love be with us, LORD, even as we put our hope in you.

GOLFERS DO THEIR BIT FOR CHARITY

Rustenburg – Scores of local golfers opened their hearts to a worthy cause by participating in the 2020 Annual Hospice Charity Golf Day on Friday 27 November. The charity event held at the Rustenburg Golf Club donated the proceeds to Hospice Rustenburg to continue providing free home-based palliative care to terminally ill people and to offer support to their close family members. "We have 589 patients we take care of including about 40 orphans and vulnerable children and it is very expensive to continue providing each month," general manager for Hospice Rustenburg Elize Pretorius said. "We also have 18 people taking care of patients in the rural areas and we also have nurses. It is a never-ending story of trying to find financial resources. This golf day will definitely go a long way in reviving our coffers."

IMPALA LAUNCHES TAXI-DRIVEN AWARENESS CAMPAIGN ON WORLD AIDS DAY

Rustenburg – Impala Rustenburg commemorated World AIDS Day on Tuesday 1 December in partnership with three local taxi associations. They promoted road safety and HIV/AIDS awareness with posters and flyers distributed by the taxis to local communities.

Impala Rustenburg chief executive officer Mark Munroe says the mining company has been working with the taxi associations during the COVID-19 pandemic. "Taxis play a key role in the lives of our employees and the wider communities. We recognise this and as a team engaged with the associations and drivers to meet their need for information campaigns, training, personal protective equipment, sanitiser, vehicle fumigation kits and much more." Kanana Rankunyane Makukuma Taxi Association administrator Cornelius Mogau confirmed: "Our partnership with Impala is strong. Impala is helping to spread information that impacts the safety, health, and well-being of our people. Through their support and contributions, we have not had one single incident of COVID-19 among our drivers – which is a remarkable statistic. This road safety campaign will make a difference in our communities."

Commenting on the HIV/AIDS awareness campaign, Chris Montsho, Bafokeng Taxi Association chairman said: "We must be more aware of HIV, and ensure we're not spreading it to others. The posters from Impala share information on how to avoid contracting HIV/AIDS, and the need to support people who are living with it. We appreciate Impala Rustenburg as an important part of our community, they take their responsibility to give back to the local communities very seriously."

The North Pole

Dear boys & girls,

By now you know that this year is a little different, and you have all been so good with washing your hands, wearing your masks and keeping yourselves and your families safe. To make sure that my reindeer and I are well enough for our long journey on Christmas eve, I am so sad to say that I won't be able to meet you in person for photos at Waterfall Mall.

The good news is that technology makes it easy for me to pop in for a quick photo, even though I am quite busy supervising elves in the workshop. This means that you can still have your photo taken with me to keep as a memory of your 2020 holidays.

Please post your letter to me, and I will read it as soon as it arrives at the North Pole. We have been working overtime to make sure the toys are all ready, the elves are wearing their masks, and we are sanitising regularly. Our hope is that your holidays this year will be extra special as you celebrate with your family and friends. Please remember to be in bed early and hang your stocking up, so it's easy for me to find.

Continue to be good and kind.

Warm wishes,
Santa Claus

P.S I will be travelling with my own special hand sanitiser and mask, so tell mom & dad not to worry!

RUSTENBURG HAS A GREAT SAMARITAN

[LETTER TO THE EDITOR]

Rustenburg – There was no electricity for over a week in Kerk Street in the Rustenburg central business district (CBD) after an overhead electrical cable broke off. After numerous complaints to Rustenburg Local Municipality (RLM) and trying many heads of electrical department, it became a no-win situation.

There was just no help from RLM, and all businesses and residents had great losses of meat and other foodstuff, which they had to throw away.

Then came along a good Samaritan. A man by the name of Gift took a day off from work and approached me to say that a cherry picker is needed to get the job done as RLM's one is broken. He took his own initiative to collect donations from other residents as well as himself to get a cherry picker as soon as possible. A few good people dug deep into their pockets and the cherry picker was arranged from Sterling Access in Kroondal. The RLM team waited for the cherry picker and then the job got done after a full week.

Why is it that the RLM has a fleet of new implements and vehicles but could not sort out the lights issue? A big thank you to Jack, Gift and all those involved in bringing the lights back on.

GRUELING BUT ENJOYABLE CYCLING

Justin Brown cycled 70km in four hours and 36 minutes.

Rustenburg – Cycling 70km takes a lot of willpower and motivation as shown by Rustenburg Cycling Club (RCC) member Justin Brown on Saturday 28 November when he completed the Nissan Trailseeker mountain bike race at Legends MX in Pretoria, in a commendable time of 4 hours and 36 minutes.

Similarly, the final Nissan Trailseeker race pushed competitors to the limit. Over 70mm of overnight rain created extreme mountain biking conditions that put the riders and their equipment through a difficult test. Jon Andrews from the Rustenburg Cycling Club completed the 70km race in a time of 3 hours and 35 minutes.

Elite ladies Amy McDougal, Robyn de Groot and Sarah Hill took part in the final Nissan Trailseeker race.

CURRIE CUP 2020

Pumas vs Griekwas

In die Mbombela Stadion in Nelspruit klop die Pumas die Griekwas 22-17 in 'n baie opwindende game. Die Pumas se agtjal was die platform tot die oorwinning en het goeie balle vir die agterlyn gegee om breuke te slaan. Die Pumas moet Kaapstad toe reis vir hulle volgende game teen die WP. Die Griekwas het 'n loslootjie hierdie naweek.

Bulle vs Cheetahs

O aarde op grote!... Die Bulle het op Fort Loftus groot horings gewys en gaffel die Cheetahs behoorlik. Die Pretorianers wen 40-13 en bra Jake se smile raak al hoe groter... en hy mag maar, want die Bulle speel kookwater ruggas. Marco van Staden was weer 'n yster op die losballe en is ook beloon met twee drieë. Die blikore wat die verdedigende kampioen is, het baie werk wat voorlê maats. Die Bulle speel volgende teen die Haai in Durban. Die Cheetahs speel tuis teen die Leeus.

Leeus vs WP

In Jo'burg verras die Leeus ons en klop die WP in 'n naelbyter 22-19. Dit was 'n baie goeie rugga game ou grote. Die Leeus was meer honger as die Kapenaars vir dié een en het hard geveg in alle fasette. Maar die dag het behoort aan twee jongelinge. Die nuwe heelagter van die Leeus, Tiaan Swanepoel het gewys hy het ghoenas van staal. Hy slaag komkommerkoel met vyf strafdoele, waarvan een 'n reuse skop van 64 meter is! In die doodsnikke van die game het Swanepoel die wenpunte aangeteken met die telling 19 elk. Verder het die kookwater vleuel, Stean Pienaar, 'n onvergeetlike drie gedruk. 'n Strafskop is aan die Leeus toegeken net buite die WP se kwartgebied en die yster gee 'n tikskopie en vang die WP se verdediging vas aan die slaap vir 'n droomdrie. Die Leeus reis Bloemfontein toe vir 'n katgeveg teen die Cheetahs. Die WP speel tuis teen die Pumas.

SINKING HOLES AT RUSTENBURG GOLF CLUB

Rustenburg – The Rustenburg Golf Club recently hosted the country's top administrators of the sport, who visited the pristine venue a few days before the South African Open.

South African Golf Association (SAGA) president Martin Saaiman and his colleagues enjoyed a good round of golf together with North West Golf Union (NWGU) president Peet van Schalkwyk and other administrators from this province. It was an amazing honour for the club to host the administrators, who played a key role in ensuring that this year's South African Open was played in the North West. The South African Open, which marked its 110th year, was concluded at the Gary Player Country Club in Sun City on Sunday 6 December.

Competing against a cast of international stars, Christiaan Bezuidenhout made South Africa proud by winning the competition. Bezuidenhout wrote his name in the history books by firing a final-round three-under par 69 to finish the 72 holes on 18-under par.
