Rustenburg family fights off deadly intruder

THE AUDACITY

KNIFE-WIELDING ATTACKER FILE GBH CHARGES AGAINST VICTIMS

Rustenburg – In the early morning hours, on Tuesday 7 May 2024, the Van Der Merwe family, who recently relocated to Rustenburg after surviving a farm attack outside Lindleyspoort in August 2023, found themselves in a life and death situation when two intruders broke into their home.

Due to the gruesome graphic nature of the photos, we opted to not place it.

In an interview with Platinum Weekly newspaper, Community Police Forum (CPF) Sector 2 secretary, Corlia du Plessis, recounted receiving a call around 03:00 on Tuesday 7 May 2024. The caller reported intruders in their home in Kruger Street, near the Rustenburg town swimming pool.

Without hesitation, Du Plessis and others rushed into action, alerting the police and emergency services. The police swiftly responded to the scene.

"I wish to express my sincere commendation for our dedicated police force; our men and women in blue arrived at the scene within minutes."

Arriving at the scene they found Sienie van der Merwe, her husband Hennie van der Merwe, their granddaughter, their son Henneman and their daughter Charné. Upon realising the threat, Sienie hid herself and her granddaughter in a room and contacted the CPF and authorities for help.

"They haven't even unpacked all their boxes. They have only been Rustenburg residents over a week now. What a welcome!" Corlia du Plessis says. Despite only recently joining their community, they were warmly welcomed by ward councillor Gert du Plessis, who provided them with emergency contact details, including those of the local CPF. This gesture proved crucial, as Sienie's call for help was swiftly answered.

In the ensuing struggle, Hennie van der Merwe and his son and daughter fought valiantly against an attacker to protect themselves and their loved ones. Hennie, wearing a back brace from a recent operation, was stabbed with a knife, but miraculously escaped serious injury. Charné suffered two stab wounds, including one near her eye, while Henneman sustained five stab wounds, narrowly missing his heart, avoiding a fatal injury. He was admitted to a local hospital and has since been released, recuperating at home.

Investigations revealed that the intruders had cruelly suffocated the family's pets before entering the house through a living room window. One suspect, aged 28, was apprehended and is under police guard in hospital. The search continues for the second suspect, who fled the scene with stolen items, including a laptop.

Sergeant Ofentse Mkgadi confirmed that the suspect was inside the house and a scuffle ensued with the owners (sister and brother), resulting in both siblings being stabbed. The suspect was eventually subdued and tied up.

In a twist of events, the knife-wielding attacker had the audacity to file charges of grievous bodily harm against his victims. "We are presently conducting an investigation into a charge of housebreaking and a charge of assault causing grievous bodily harm (GBH) for both the victims and the suspect," sergeant Mkgadi said.

As the community comes to terms with this shocking event, they are urged to report any information that may lead to the arrest of the second suspect. Contact your local police station with any relevant details.

If you can assist financially with the medical costs of the Van Der Merwe family, herewith their banking details: Capitec | Savings | C van der Merwe 226 094 8525

WARNING: ROAD SPIKING INCIDENTS ON THE RISE - STAY SAFE ON THE N4

N4, a target for criminals

Recently, there has been a significant increase in road-spiking incidents along the N4, raising serious safety concerns for motorists.

Expert insight

Mike Bolhuis, Specialist Investigators into Serious Violent, Serious Economic Crimes & Serious Cybercrimes, highlighted the alarming trend of these incidents. He emphasised the escalating violence with which these crimes are being executed.

Road spiking is a dangerous act where criminals place sharp objects such as nails, rocks, or metal spikes on roads or highways to puncture vehicle tires, forcing drivers to stop. Once the vehicle is immobilized, criminals approach and rob the occupants, sometimes leading to more violent acts such as hijacking or assault.

Recent incidents and response

SAPS brigadier Sabata Mokgwabone reported the most recent spiking incident occurred around 19:15 on Tuesday 16 April 2024, along the N4 road in the Mmakau policing area. The victims were en route from Rustenburg to Pretoria when their vehicle's tire deflated shortly after passing the Brits toll plaza. Initially, they thought they had hit a rock on the road and pulled over to inspect. However, their suspicions were quickly confirmed as four armed males approached them and forcibly robbed them of their valuables. Fortunately, the situation did not escalate to physical harm due to the timely intervention of private security personnel. Despite an exchange of gunfire, no injuries were reported. As of now, no arrests have been made, and investigations into the incident are ongoing. To combat such crimes, regular patrols are conducted along the N4, in collaboration with neighbouring provinces like Gauteng and various stakeholders, including private security firms.

Bakwena's commitment to safety

Bakwena, which manages a portion of the N4 highway, has expressed deep concern over these incidents. While they are not a law enforcement authority, Bakwena collaborates closely with authorities and other stakeholders to enhance safety measures along the N1N4 route. "They urge motorists to remain vigilant and report any suspicious activities," said Bakwena PR manager Charmaine van Wyk.

Safety tips from bakwena

- Travel during daylight hours if possible, as most spiking incidents occur at night.
- Stay vigilant and reduce your speed when driving at night.
- If you hit an object, do not stop immediately. Drive to a safe location before inspecting your vehicle.
- Report any suspicious objects or incidents to 0800 BAKWENA (0800 2259362) for assistance.

Inferno engulfs two Rustenburg CBD shops... Questions linger over cause

Rustenburg – A raging fire engulfed two shops, Tycoon and Payless, on Saturday 4 May 2024. The billowing dark smoke was visible from a distance, casting a sombre shadow over the city. According to an individual employed at one of the affected establishments, who declined to be named, the fire is believed to have originated at the back of one of the stores. By the time the flames reached the front, it was already uncontrollable, leaving the occupants helpless. The extent of the losses suffered by the business owners is yet to be determined, with uncertainties lingering over whether they had insurance coverage for their inventory. However, the toll is undeniably substantial.

Securing adequate water supply to combat the inferno proved to be a challenge, but thankfully, there were no reports of serious injuries. Several individuals were, however, hospitalised due to smoke inhalation. Tragically, customers were inside the shops when the fire broke out. By the time they noticed the smoke, it was too late, and the inferno had already taken hold from the back. Reports on social media indicated that the authorities had to deal with fighting the fire, as well as looters who made use of the opportunity. Efforts to obtain a statement from the Fire Department were unsuccessful at the time of publishing. The cause of the fire remains under investigation.

Dark clouds of smoke billow into the sky, visible from afar, as a fire engulfs the Rustenburg CBD.

Charred debris inside one of the storage rooms reveal the destructive force of the fire.

Another storage room gutted.

COLLISION ON N4

Rustenburg – A collision between a Ford Bantam and a double-trailer truck occurred on Wednesday 1 May 2024, at around 07:14 on the N4 towards Swartruggens, just before the Koster turnoff. Fortunately, there were no fatalities. The female driver of the bakkie sustained only minor injuries. Following the accident, the truck came to a stop across four lanes, leading to significant traffic delays.

BUFFELSPOORT FARM ATTACK LEAVES RESIDENTS ON EDGE

Rustenburg/ Buffelspoort – A daring farm attack shocked the community of Buffelspoort on Tuesday, 7 May 2024, when four armed men targeted the citrus farm of John and Wilma Coetzee. The incident unfolded around 08:00 in the morning, highlighting the vulnerability of rural areas to such violent crimes. Charl Visser, owner of Buffel Sekuriteit, Rustenburg Landelike Diens, and Kroondal Plaaswag, detailed the harrowing events. The assailants, wearing masks, gained access to the farm and approached the farmhouse. They subdued the cleaning lady, tying her hands and feet before leaving her outside. Upon entering the home, the attackers held Wilma Coetzee at gunpoint. They proceeded to physically assault her, striking her head with a firearm and throwing her across a table before binding her. The criminals then ransacked the house, taking a television and other household items. Emergency services were quick to respond, with ER24 treating Wilma on the scene before transporting her to the hospital. She was kept overnight for observation. SAPS spokesperson, Ofentse Mokgadi, confirmed the violent nature of the attack, stating, "The suspects were armed and fled after robbing cash and cellphones in the house." Authorities have launched an investigation into the attack, urging anyone with information to come forward and assist in bringing the perpetrators to justice. Meanwhile, the community of Buffelspoort remains on edge, reeling from the brazenness of the attack and rallying around the Coetzee family in solidarity and support.

CONTROVERSIAL BELA BILL... TIME WILL TELL

'SGBs can work with this,' says FEDSAS about feasible, practical 'new' BELAB

SA – Clear rules of engagement are at the heart of the version of the Basic Education Laws Amendment Bill, or BELAB, that was approved by National Council of Provinces' Chosen Committee on Education, Technology and Sport on Thursday, 24 April 2024. "There are comprehensive changes to the version that was approved," says Dr Jaco Deacon, CEO of FEDSAS (the Federation of Governing Bodies of South African Schools). The initial amendments pertaining to language and admissions policies, which would have shifted the decision-making authority to the provincial Head of Education, have been adapted to the extent that it now remains a function of the school governing body. "It does give limited oversight to heads of education but with clear guidelines as to how this should take place." Deacon says the amendments emphasise the importance of public participation. "Legislative processes can be slow, and some actions might feel like a futile exercise. However, as far as BELAB is concerned, this is an example of how a healthy, democratic process should work. FEDSAS is also grateful towards the Department, Minister and politicians who handled the thousands of public inputs with due seriousness. The participation of schools, citizens and several organisations were crucial to the changes." FEDSAS was involved with the BELAB process since 2017. "Although the organisation often expressed its opinion in the public sphere on some of the more controversial amendments, the organisation continued to be involved as an education partner and by using the organisation's experience at grassroots level to make contributions in terms of the feasibility of some of the amendments." The proposed amendments now allow public schools to remain public schools governed by school governing bodies. This was the original vision of the South African Schools' Act and the current version, in contrast to previous versions, embodies this spirit.

Should South Africa consider implementing a four-day workweek?

The idea of a longer weekend may seem attractive, but how practical is it? Various businesses and countries have experimented with this concept, noting both benefits and disadvantages. However, will the economy thrive under such a system? What is your opinion?

No, implementing a shorter workweek could potentially reduce work hours, leading to decreased income for hourly workers. While this approach might be suitable for certain sectors, it seems impractical for industries such as construction. In construction, a shorter workweek could adversely affect project schedules and employee earnings.

Marthinus Groenewald

Yes, I believe the South African government should adopt a four-day workweek. This change could lead to significant cost savings for individuals. For example, instead of spending money on petrol for a five or six-day workweek, employees could save. This saved money could then be allocated to other expenses.

SOULFOOD

PSALM 25, 1-11

A Plea for Deliverance and Forgiveness

A Psalm of David.

1 To You, O Lord, I lift up my soul.
 2 O my God, I trust in You;
 Let me not be ashamed;
 Let not my enemies triumph over me.
 3 Indeed, let no one who [a]waits on You be ashamed;
 Let those be ashamed who deal treacherously without cause.
 4 Show me Your ways, O Lord;
 Teach me Your paths.
 5 Lead me in Your truth and teach me,
 For You are the God of my salvation;
 On You I wait all the day.
 6 Remember, O Lord,
 Your tender mercies and Your lovingkindnesses,
 For they are from of old.
 7 Do not remember the sins of my youth, nor my transgressions;

 According to Your mercy remember me,
 For Your goodness' sake, O Lord.
 8 Good and upright is the Lord;
 Therefore He teaches sinners in the way.
 9 The humble He guides in justice,
 And the humble He teaches His way.
 10 All the paths of the Lord are mercy and truth,
 To such as keep His covenant and His testimonies.
 11 For Your name's sake, O Lord,
 Pardon my iniquity, for it is great.
