22 AUGUST 2025

Rustenburg — On 31 July 2025, the Special Tribunal delivered a landmark judgment, ordering former National Lotteries Commission (NLC) board member advocate William Elias Huma to cough up R21,158,118.00 in misused Lotto grants — finally a sign that justice might just arrive, even if it's fashionably late.

The R21 Million Mess

The Tribunal declared two massive grants unlawful:

- R16.5 million to the Samaritan Initiative NPO (supposedly for a chicken-farming project in Marikana), and
- R4.658 million to Reagile NPC (run by Huma's wife and nephew).

Instead of community upliftment, the funds ended up in Silverlite Trading, later controlled by Huma. And the chicken farm? Left to rot. No eggs. No benefits. Only broken promises.

Assets Frozen — Recovery Underway

To make sure someone actually pays attention to the ruling, the SIU preserved:

- R10 million from the sale of Huma's Waterkloof property,
- Farm Zwartkoppies 296 in North West, and
- A boutique hotel in Rustenburg.

These will be auctioned off — with proceeds finally going back into real community projects, not private pockets.

"Corruption Kills," says Judge — and she's not kidding

Judge Margie Victor didn't mince words — quoting Navi Pillay: "Corruption kills. The money stolen through corruption every year is enough to feed the world's hungry 80 times over." She slammed Huma's behaviour as "egregious, negligent, and dishonest," pointing out that as a legally trained person, he clearly knew better.

Just the Start — more grime to cleanup

This is the first judgment in the NLC grant scandal — but not the last. The SIU has filed 18 more review applications totalling over R320 million in questionable funding. Much more loot to chase back yet.

Why It Matters to Rustenburg (and SA)

Communities like Marikana were promised upliftment. Instead, all they got was talk — and a dilapidated chicken farm. Now, at least, there's a glimmer of accountability. For now, communities like Marikana can only shake their heads and wonder: how many more "upliftment projects" ended up uplifting no one but the insiders?

NWU to open School of Mines in Rustenburg

Rustenburg – Big news is on the horizon for Rustenburg: the North-West University (NWU) has confirmed that a School of Mines and Mining Engineering is in the pipeline – and it will be based right here in our city.

This exciting development was highlighted when NWU principal and vice-chancellor prof Bismark Tyobeka and premier Lazarus Mokgosi signed a memorandum of understanding (MoU) on 29 April 2025, marking a new chapter of cooperation between the university and the provincial government. Although the agreement was signed earlier this year, the news is making waves again now because the details around the School of Mines are finally surfacing — sparking fresh excitement in Rustenburg.

The MoU sets out a five-year plan for collaboration on critical issues such as infrastructure, energy, and skills development, but for Rustenburg residents, the promise of a dedicated mining school is the real headline.

“This university has a central role to play in how we envision the socio-economic prospects of our province,” Premier Mokgosi said. “With challenges like unemployment and climate-related damage to infrastructure, the expertise of NWU will help us unlock solutions and build sustainable communities.”

While the mining school is the most exciting local development, other projects in the pipeline include a School of Veterinary Sciences for Mahikeng and expanded collaboration in areas such as health, water and sanitation, agriculture, artificial intelligence, and sport.

Prof Bismark Tyobeka, NWU vice-chancellor, and premier Lazarus Mokgosi celebrate the signing of a partnership that paves the way for a School of Mines in Rustenburg.

Justice sought for Onalenna: Murder Case Back in Court

Rustenburg – The community continues to reel in shock following the brutal murder of North-West University (NWU) Mahikeng student, Onalenna Selebogo (21).

Onalenna was found dead in a central Rustenburg flat, in Tuin Street, on 3 August 2025, her body wrapped in sheets after she had been stabbed multiple times in the neck. The accused — believed to be the woman's boyfriend — Walter Tshello (29), fled the scene but later handed himself over to police. He now faces a murder charge.

Tshello appeared briefly in the Rustenburg Magistrate's Court this week for a bail application. The case was postponed until Friday, 22 August 2025, when the court will hear bail information after confirming his address.

According to Sivenathi Gunya, spokesperson for the National Prosecuting Authority (NPA) North West, this case highlights the urgent need to address gender-based violence (GBV) and femicide in South Africa.

Organisations such as the End GBVF Collective and Women for Change South Africa have voiced concerns over the growing number of GBV cases, calling for collective action to protect women and support survivors.

The Rustenburg community has expressed deep sadness and anger over the tragedy, with many describing Onalenna as a bright young woman whose future was stolen too soon.

SAPS urges anyone with information that could assist the investigation to contact captain Elizabeth Tieties on 082 772 9468 or visit the Rustenburg Police Station.

BLAST AHEAD!

Temporary closures on R52 near Rustenburg

Rustenburg/ Koster – Motorists travelling between Koster and Rustenburg are advised to plan ahead this week, as SANRAL has announced temporary Stop/Go road closures on the R52 to allow for controlled blasting as part of road upgrade works.

The closures will take place between Thursday, 21 August, and Friday, 22 August 2025, between 12:00 and 16:00, on the section between km 6.5 and km 7.2. Traffic will be managed through a Stop/Go system, which may result in delays of up to 30 minutes during peak hours. Closure lengths will generally not exceed 5 km, unless required for safety.

“We advise road users to plan their trips accordingly during these essential road upgrades. Please adhere to traffic signage and the instructions of flag personnel – it’s for your safety, as well as that of our workers,” said Mirriam Ramoba, SANRAL’s provincial head for the North West.

These works form part of SANRAL’s ongoing contract R.052-030-2020/1, aimed at improving the safety and quality of national roads in the province.

The EPWP OWM team started in Helen Joseph Drive, working from Mike's Kitchen towards the end of Ward 17.

Cutting overgrown grass near Krokodilrivier — the EPWP OWM team hard at work keeping Rustenburg clean.

Rustenburg shines brighter with Our Ward Matters

Rustenburg – From bush cutting to clothing donations, Our Ward Matters (OWM) is proving that teamwork and care make Rustenburg a better place. Led by André van Dyk and Cllr Tanya Rothman, the initiative serves both Ward 17 and Ward 16 (Geelhoutpark). This week's Ward 17 Litter Day saw teams collecting rubbish across Helen Joseph Drive, Osmand Gazi, and Cuckoo Avenue — living up to the motto: "Give a Hoot, Don't Pollute." But OWM does more than just clean. With the support of Mona and Dianne from Agapé Gemeente, volunteers distributed clothing to families in need. The donation was made possible by Dianne, while Mona and Ronell from Our Ward Cares helped deliver the items to a family in difficult circumstances. "Kindness is giving hope to those who think they are all alone," said Rothman.

The EPWP OWM team also cut overgrown grass near Krokodilrivier, cleared storm drains, and removed litter — joined for a photo by security officers from Kgaswane Nature Reserve. Every clean-up makes a difference, but OWM needs the community's help with petrol, equipment, and supplies.

The newly revamped Noordvaal building – Afri Readymix's bold new step forward in Rustenburg.

Rustenburg's own success story: Afri Readymix on the Rise

Rustenburg – In just four years, Afri Readymix has become a household name in Rustenburg's construction and mining sectors, proving that resilience and vision can turn setbacks into soaring success stories.

Founded in 2021 by managing director Gerhard Maree, Afri Readymix was born after Maree's retrenchment from industry giant AfriSam in 2020. Instead of walking away, he negotiated the acquisition of the very plant he once managed for 15 years, breathing new life into it and laying the foundations for what would become one of Rustenburg's most dynamic suppliers.

Alongside Maree, Afri Readymix is also steered by directors and shareholders Christie van der Mescht and Werner Weiss, who play a key role in the company's growth and stability.

Today, Afri Readymix boasts a fleet of 18 company-owned trucks, eight subcontracted vehicles, and cutting-edge technology like the Command CE batching system – ensuring real-time monitoring, precision quality control, and optimised mix design. With mobile batching units on hand, the company can even take production to large-scale infrastructure projects such as solar farms and remote roadworks.

But Afri Readymix is about more than concrete and construction. Maree and his team remain deeply committed to uplifting the community, especially through their long-standing support of Mōrester Children's Home. In 2023 alone, the company raised R400,000 for the home through its annual charity golf day – a proud tradition that continues to grow each year.

And now, big news is stirring once again: Afri Readymix has purchased the Noordvaal building in Rustenburg, and the revamp is almost complete. With fresh energy and modern finishes, the building is already turning heads and promises to become another symbol of growth and opportunity in the city.

From its humble beginnings to industry leader, Afri Readymix is mixing strength, innovation, and heart – cementing not only foundations but also a legacy in Rustenburg.

MEC Unveils Bold Plan to Upgrade Informal Settlements

Rustenburg/ North West – On Tuesday 12 August 2025, MEC Gaoage Oageng Molapisi of the Department of Cooperative Governance, Human Settlements and Traditional Affairs, outlined his department's ambitious plans to transform informal settlements into thriving communities.

Molapisi confirmed that the department has finalised the Provincial Informal Settlements Upgrading Strategy, fully aligned with the National White Paper on Human Settlements. The plan sets out a roadmap to upgrade 219 informal settlements to phase three – the stage where essential services such as water, sanitation, roads, and stormwater systems are installed.

“This upgrading programme follows three critical phases: land acquisition, formalisation of land rights, and, finally, the installation of essential services,” Molapisi explained.

During the 2024/25 financial year, the department successfully upgraded seven settlements – including sites in Mamusa, Amalia Ext 5, Wolmaranstad Ext 17 & 19, Lebaleng Ext 6, Kanana Ext 17, and Rustenburg's Popo Molefe and Mbeki Sun – to phase three. Through the Informal Settlement Upgrading Partnership Grant, 2,504 housing units were delivered to beneficiaries.

Looking to the current financial year, the MEC announced that the department has set aside R166.5 million to deliver 2,257 service sites. The majority of this funding will go towards installing basic services, with the remainder earmarked for land acquisition and formalisation in key priority areas.

Molapisi emphasised that the strategy is not just about housing, but about reshaping communities for the long term.

Exposing Baby Trafficking in South Africa

Every child deserves safety, love, and a future – not a price tag.

SA – A shocking press release from private investigator Mike Bolhuis has revealed the harrowing reality of baby trafficking in South Africa. The report uncovers how vulnerable infants are being sold or traded, often under the guise of adoption, and highlights the urgent need for awareness and action. The Bolhuis urges communities to remain vigilant and to report any suspicious activity. “This crime destroys lives before they even begin,” he warns. His team continues to investigate syndicates and assist law enforcement in fighting this hidden scourge. The public is encouraged to share information, educate others, and protect the most innocent among us. Together, we can stop baby trafficking. “Hands off our Grants!”

– SASSA WARNS AGAINST UNLAWFUL DEDUCTIONS

SA – The South African Social Security Agency (SASSA) has sounded the alarm on Thursday 14 August 2025, over rising complaints of unlawful deductions from social grants, with many beneficiaries reporting money taken by insurance companies they never signed up for.

SASSA CEO Themba Matlou stressed that the Agency has no authority to make deductions without consent. “Your money is your money. If you qualify for a grant, it belongs to you, and we will never partner with funeral schemes or insurance companies,” he said.

What to do if you are affected:

- Report it at your nearest SASSA office.
- Dispute the deduction by SMS: send your ID number and insurer's name to 34548.
- Cancel the policy directly with the insurer.

By law, only one funeral policy deduction (max 10% of the grant) is allowed – and only with the beneficiary's consent. Child-related and temporary disability grants are excluded.

Beneficiaries are urged to stay alert and protect their grant money. For help, call SASSA toll-free at 0800 60 10 11 or visit www.sassa.gov.za.

NORTH WEST JOBS CRISIS

PSA Demands Urgent Action

NW – The Public Servants Association (PSA) has sounded the alarm on 15 August 2025 over North West's unemployment crisis, demanding urgent action to rescue the province's collapsing economy. Stats SA's latest Labour Force Survey shows North West as the hardest-hit province, with an official unemployment rate of 40.1% and an expanded rate of 54.7% – leaving more than 1.5 million people jobless.

The PSA criticised the provincial government for failing to present a credible plan, pointing to retrenchments in mining, drought-stricken agriculture, collapsing manufacturing, struggling tourism, and thousands of vacant posts in education and health.

The union is calling for all funded vacancies to be filled within six months, stronger local hiring commitments from business, revival of idle industrial parks in Mahikeng, Brits, and Rustenburg, support for farmers, and urgent investment in tourism infrastructure. The PSA further demanded a North West Jobs and Industrialisation Summit within 60 days.

STEP UP for Casual Day 2025

Rustenburg – On Friday, 5 September 2025, South Africans will once again stand together in support of people with disabilities through Losliddag (Casual Day). This year's theme, "Verby die Grense" (Beyond Boundaries), encourages us to break barriers and celebrate inclusivity. For just R20 per sticker, community members can play their part in uplifting lives while proudly wearing their support. Stickers are available from Flippie Fourie (082 930 0446) — with proceeds directly benefitting Spes Bona, home for people with disabilities in Rustenburg. Launched more than 30 years ago, Casual Day has grown into South Africa's largest fundraising project for persons with disabilities. It's not just about stickers and casual clothes — it's about building awareness, opening doors, and creating opportunities. Every sticker sold helps ensure that organisations like Spes Bona can continue providing essential care, dignity, and empowerment to those who need it most.

Lede van die VLU glimlag breed tydens die Augustus-vergadering. Agter van links: Ilse de Koker, Charmaine Coetzer, Monica Liebenberg, Ansie Baxter, en Anne Heyneke. Voor: Theresa Graham en Daleen Roos.

Rustenburg – Die Vroue-Landbou Unie (VLU) is nie net bekend vir handvaardighede soos naaldwerk, hekel, blomrangskikking en bak nie. Hulle bied ook geleenthede vir emosionele groei en Christelike verdieping. By Kashane VLU aantak se Augustus-vergadering het lede die voorreg gehad om na Helma Nieuwenhuize, 'n Multi Level Neuro Processing (MLNP) berader, te luister. Sy het praktiese raad gedeel oor hoe om daaglikse spanning en trauma op 'n Christelike manier te hanteer – onder meer deur genoeg slaap, stokperdjies, oefening, stilte-tyd en diep asemhaling. Die dames het selfs saam 'n paar asemhalingsoefeninge gedoen. Monica Liebenberg, die gasvrou vir die aand, het gesorg dat alles seepglad verloop en die gaste tuis voel. Die vergadering is verder afgesluit met hul gewilde gelukstrekking, waar een gelukkige lid met 'n breë glimlag wegstap.

Neighbours Unite for a Cleaner Corner

The clean-up crew at East End — smiling faces, cleaner streets, and stronger community spirit.

Rustenburg – The East End community came together on Saturday, 16 August 2025, for a cheerful clean-up at the corner of Ridder and Tuin streets. With big smiles and willing hands, residents rolled up their sleeves to make their neighbourhood sparkle. Cllr Cobus Nortje thanked everyone who joined in — Martha, Mia, JC, Kobus (RCCF), Hannes, Jan, Joey, Jackie, Katlego, Coenie, and Sidney. "Your teamwork shows what community spirit is all about," he said. A special word of thanks went to JC for providing food and water, as well as to Elma Wilmott and a kind Ridder Street resident who kept spirits high with cold drinks, chocolates, and sweets. Together, neighbours proved once again: a little effort and a lot of heart can make a big difference.

'n Stralende Ansie Baxter ontvang haar gelukstrekking-prys uit die hande van Anne Heyneke.

Helma Nieuwenhuize en Monica Liebenberg. Monica oorhandig 'n geskenkie van waardering aan Helma vir haar inspirerende sessie oor spanningbeheer.

NEW KING JAMES VERSION (NKJV)

HAVE YOUR SAY

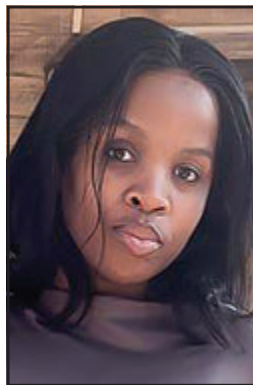

Is living a healthier lifestyle and taking control of your destiny a thought that quietly taps on your mind every now and then?

Many of us dream of making better choices for our health, happiness, and future — yet life's busyness often gets in the way. Is this a silent goal you revisit from time to time, or something you're actively working on right now?

Yes. As I approach 60, I've started reflecting on my purpose and the life I want for the years ahead. The first step is clarity — knowing what you want. Take responsibility, build discipline, and let go of what weighs you down. Don't wait for the "right time"; act now. Let failure refine you, not define you.

Erica Roos, Rustenburg

Yes. Our daily choices shape both our health and our future. I focus on small, consistent steps — eating better, exercising, and caring for my mental well-being. It's not always easy, but each step gives me a sense of control and keeps me motivated to improve.

Onneile Phatsoane, Rustenburg

Did you know?

Rustenburg's Hovering Fisherman... Look up at the waterways around Rustenburg and you may spot the pied kingfisher, a striking black-and-white bird with a talent for fishing. Unlike most kingfishers, this little acrobat hovers in the air like a drone before plunging straight down to catch its prey. With a wingspan of about 25 cm, it's the world's largest hovering bird and a master angler, feeding mainly on small fish and insects. Watching its aerial display is like seeing nature's very own stunt pilot at work!

RWFL Rustenburg shines at Foro Spar 10km!

Rustenburg – Run/Walk for Life Rustenburg athletes stole the spotlight at the Foro Spar 10km on Saturday, 16 August 2025. Elmarie Pretorius stormed to victory as 1st Lady Overall and 1st Master Lady, with Salome de Beer securing 1st Veteran Lady. Adding to the glory, Philip Molefe crossed the line as 1st Veteran Male. These outstanding results show the strength and spirit of RWFL Rustenburg – proving once again that dedication pays off. Well done to our champions!
