13 FEBRUARY 2026

Platinum Weekly newspaper | Swartruggens – In the early hours of Tuesday, 3 February 2026, terror struck the Bredenkamp family farm in Lindleyspoort, Swartruggens. What began as a peaceful night ended in violence, gunshots and a desperate fight for survival. At approximately 03:00, armed men forced their way into the family's farmhouse, breaking the door lock and confronting Willie (43) and Mishka (43) Bredenkamp while they slept. "I woke up with two men standing next to our bed," Mishka recalls.

Within moments, Willie leapt from bed to defend his family — unarmed — against attackers carrying a firearm. Shots were fired. A brutal struggle followed. Against all odds, the family survived.

In an exclusive interview with Platinum Weekly, Mishka and Willie Bredenkamp shared their harrowing account of the attack that has forever changed their lives.

"Now we are going to kill you."

Mishka says she awoke to find two armed men beside their bed. "They said, 'Now we are going to kill you.'" Willie's immediate instinct was clear: protect his family. "My first reaction was to fight, to give my wife the opportunity to escape." As Willie fought one attacker, the second tried to restrain Mishka, telling her, "You stay."

During the struggle, a firearm was pointed at Willie. The trigger was pulled — but miraculously, the shot missed him.

When one suspect jumped onto Willie's back as he grappled for the gun, Mishka seized the opportunity. She fled the bedroom, woke her sons and drove them to her parents-in-law, who live a short distance away. "When I drove off with the boys, I thought Willie was dead," she says softly.

Brutal Injuries

Willie sustained three serious stab wounds to his head requiring stitches, as well as nine additional stab wounds to his neck and back. He was stabbed with a screwdriver. Two shots were fired at him. He was also bitten on his hands, arms and back.

"He only had his two hands that he fought with," says Mishka. Remarkably, he survived. He later received medical treatment for his head and neck injuries.

No Money Demanded, Nothing Stolen

According to Mishka, the suspects did not demand money and nothing was stolen during the attack. Willie further revealed that he recognised one of the suspects — a man who had previously worked casually on the farm, assisting with thatch roofing.

Farm attack, again, rattles Boschfontein community

A 61-year-old Boschfontein resident was shot in the foot during an armed home invasion on Friday night. The suspect fled on foot. The victim is in serious but stable condition. No arrests have been made. Police are investigating a case of house robbery. The incident highlights growing smallholding security concerns.

"He Fought With His BARE HANDS"

Police Action

According to the South African Police Service (SAPS) North West, a coordinated operation involving Swartruggens Detectives, Visible Policing, Crime Intelligence, the K9 Unit, Forensics, local farmers, the Community Police Forum and the farm neighbourhood watch led to the rapid arrest of the suspects.

Drone technology was used to trace two suspects hiding in nearby bushes. Additional arrests followed in Boons, Koster and Carletonville. A firearm and ammunition believed to have been used in the attack were recovered for forensic analysis.

Six suspects — Buti Joseph Seqele (47), Nkosinathi Thembinkosi Mduli (41), Jankie Nnebe (44), Locus Samuel Masiane (46), Sibusiso Vusi Tembe (35), and Zolile Nicholas Nkomane (67) — appeared before the Swartruggens Magistrate's Court on 5 and 6 February 2026.

The case was postponed to 11 February and later to Friday, 13 February 2026, to allow the accused to secure permanent addresses and finalise legal representation.

A Life Forever Changed

The Bredenkamp family says the incident has permanently altered their lives.

In a deeply personal letter written one week after the attack, Mishka reflects on survival: "Omte oorleef gaan nie net daaroor om fisies veilig te wees nie; dit gaan daaroor om weer te leer hoe om veilig te voel... Krag beteken nie om te vergeet wat gebeur het nie — dit beteken om aan te hou vorentoe beweeg ten spyte daarvan."

Constable Gift Mota (25), a dedicated Phokeng police officer who made the ultimate sacrifice while pursuing a suspect on 4 February 2026.

The dam in the Masosobane and Raffredy sections near Phokeng, where constable Mota tragically drowned during the line-of-duty pursuit.

A LIFE OF COURAGE CUT SHORT

Community mourns constable Gift Mota

Platinum Weekly newspaper | Rustenburg – The Phokeng community is grieving the heartbreaking loss of one of its own – a young officer whose dedication to protecting others ultimately cost him his life.

Constable Gift Mota (25) tragically drowned while on duty on Wednesday, 4 February 2026, during a pursuit of a suspect in the Phokeng policing area. His death has left colleagues, family and residents in deep sorrow.

According to the South African Police Service (SAPS) in the North West, constable Mota, who was attached to the Visible Policing Crime Prevention Unit at Phokeng Police Station, was conducting patrol duties with fellow members when they were approached by a community member. The resident alleged that a suspect linked to robbery and burglary cases had been spotted nearby.

The officers proceeded to the Masosobane and Raffredy sections – a bushy area with a dam. Upon spotting the suspect, they gave chase. In an attempt to evade arrest, the suspect ran into the dam. Without hesitation, constable Mota entered the water in pursuit. While swimming behind the suspect, he disappeared beneath the surface. The SAPS diving unit was immediately activated and, in a devastating turn of events, later recovered his body from the dam. An inquest docket has been opened to investigate the circumstances surrounding the incident.

Constable Mota, originally from Ermelo in Mpumalanga, had been transferred to Phokeng in November 2025. Though his time at the station was brief, his impact was lasting. Described as committed, disciplined and courageous, he embodied the spirit of service that defines so many young officers who wear the badge with pride. Acting provincial commissioner of police in the North West, major general (Dr) Ryno Naidoo, expressed profound sorrow over the loss. “We have lost a dedicated police officer, who made the ultimate sacrifice in the line of duty while serving and protecting the community. Constable Mota’s bravery and commitment will not be forgotten. The police stand with his family during this painful time and will ensure that they receive the necessary support,” said major general Naidoo.

A memorial service honouring constable Mota was held on Wednesday 11 February 2026 at the Pentecostal Holiness Church in Phokeng. Colleagues stood in solemn tribute, uniforms pressed, heads bowed – a powerful reminder of the brotherhood and sisterhood within the service. His funeral service is set to take place on 14 February 2026 at 07:00 at H/N 39 Vincent Street, Mpumalanga, where family and loved ones will bid him a final farewell.

As a community newspaper, we extend our deepest and most heartfelt condolences to the Mota family, his friends, and his colleagues at Phokeng Police Station.

Constable Gift Mota’s story is one of bravery, duty and sacrifice. May his courage never be forgotten, and may his family find comfort in knowing that he died protecting the very community he was sworn to serve.

A Tiny Life Lost: foetus found in sewer

Platinum Weekly newspaper | Rustenburg – The Marikana community was left deeply saddened on 6 February 2026 after municipal workers made a heartbreaking discovery while conducting routine sewer maintenance. A foetus was found during efforts to clear blockages in the area. Authorities, including forensic services and SAPS, attended the scene and investigations are underway. The incident has shocked residents and raised painful questions.

WHEN SILENCE TURNS TO GUNFIRE

Farm attack again rattles Boschfontein community

Platinum Weekly newspaper | Rustenburg – On Friday, 6 February 2026 at approximately 21:00, the quiet of Boschfontein was shattered. A 61-year-old man was inside his home in Palestine Drive, a smallholding just outside Rustenburg, working on his laptop when an armed suspect entered the house and pointed a firearm at him, demanding his cellphone and laptop. According to SAPS spokesperson Ofentse Mokgadi, the suspect pointed a firearm at the victim, later turning it on his wife and demanding her cellphone before firing a shot and fleeing on foot.

The bullet ricocheted and struck the husband in the foot. It is nothing short of a miracle. A firearm discharged inside a home at close range could easily have resulted in a fatal injury. A slightly different angle – and this community could have been facing a tragedy. The injured man was transported to hospital and is in serious but stable condition. No arrests have been made. Police are investigating a case of house robbery. While SAPS communication refers to one suspect, the couple reportedly indicated that they saw four men during the incident.

CPF EXCO Marcus Haasbroek confirmed that they received a call reporting the attack and rushed to the scene, where the victim’s son confirmed his father had been shot. Rustenburg SAPS were contacted while CPF members were on scene.

This is not an isolated incident for the area. Just over a year ago, an armed attack and robbery occurred only a short distance from this latest scene. For residents on smallholdings, the sense of vulnerability is real. Many know they live far from immediate assistance, and that isolation, among other factors make them targets.

While investigations might determine the full circumstances of this case, security experts consistently warn that such crimes are seldom random. They are often planned, with perpetrators exploiting routine and remoteness. In uncertain times, preparedness and strong community networks remain among the most effective safeguards. Those actively involved in Community Policing Forums and local safety groups significantly strengthen their chances of prevention and rapid response. Vigilance, cooperation, and practical security measures are not alarmist – they are essential.

This incident forms part of a troubling national pattern. According to recent agricultural and police crime reports: South Africa records hundreds of farm attacks annually. Dozens of murders linked to farm attacks are recorded nationally each year. Most attacks occur at night. Firearms are frequently used. Many victims are over 55. These are not distant statistics. They represent real families – and now, again, an attack in our own community. Now more than ever:

- Secure your gates and access points.
- Ensure proper lighting.
- Test alarm systems.
- Stay active in CPF and neighbourhood watch groups.
- Report suspicious activity immediately.

This happened here. In Boschfontein. In Rustenburg.

In South Africa, the term “farm attack” is commonly used by the public and media to describe violent crimes that occur on farms or smallholdings, even when the victims are not professional farmers, while SAPS applies specific criteria before formally classifying an incident as a farm attack.

OWM takes back its streets

Platinum Weekly newspaper | Rustenburg – Visible action speaks louder than promises — and throughout late January and early February, Our Ward Matters (OWM) demonstrated exactly that through consistent, hands-on clean-ups across Wards 16 and 17.

From giving back to vital community organisations to restoring visibility, clearing illegal dumping, and improving safety, the focus remains clear: small daily habits lead to BIG community change.

Our Ward Cares giving back with heart

On 30 January, Our Ward Matters (Our Ward Cares) proudly handed over a meaningful donation to Hospice Rustenburg, collected over the past year from Ward 17 residents. Hospice Rustenburg provides compassionate care and dignity to patients and families during life's most difficult times. The handover was conducted by Jonas Mokhini, Ilse du Preez, and André van Dyk alongside Cllr Tanya Rothman. When a community cares, it shows.

Massive clean-up, 2 February

Teams spent two full days in Stamvrug Avenue clearing dense overgrowth, removing illegal dumping, and loading two sponsored skips. Hidden waste and squatting concerns were uncovered even in areas considered "safe." Work extended toward Witstinkhout Avenue, Kruger Street, Lepelhout Avenue, and near Wildevy Centre, with security presence ensuring safe operations.

Continuing the momentum, 3 February
On 3 February, teams returned to Stamvrug Avenue toward Witstinkhout to continue brushcutting and debushing. A second team worked at Wildevy and Kruger Street removing rubbish and illegal advertising boards. Fidelity ADT Security hosted a visibility promotion with armed response patrolling nearby work zones, reinforcing that safety remains a top priority.

THE WARD 17 CLEAN-UP CHALLENGE, 4-5 FEBRUARY

The highlight of the fortnight was a spirited clean-up challenge between two OWM teams — bringing energy and momentum to large-scale operations. Team "Big Brothers," led by Cllr Tanya Rothman and Michael, cleaned behind TOTAL Tuscani Garage, worked along Helen Joseph to Arend Road, and tackled Timbati veld. The "A-Team," led by André van Dyk, cleared heavy overgrowth and dumping from Protea Avenue through Cuckoo and Elandsrivier toward Waterberg. Both teams focused on litter removal, visibility, and safety. In just two days:

- 68 litres of petrol were used
- Equipment endured heavy strain, with one brushcutter breaking
- Overtime was worked to complete major sections

Who won? A draw! Because the real winner was Ward 17. The challenge proved that when teamwork meets purpose, transformation happens quickly — and powerfully.

Canal and storm drain clean-up, 9 February

On 9 February, Our Ward Matters, together with Michael and Cllr Tanya Rothman, cleared the water canal from Watervalrivier toward Krokodilrivier, finishing near Helen Joseph on the Kgaswane side. Dense vegetation was removed, grass cut back, and storm drains on both sides of the street cleaned to improve safety and prevent blockages.

This area is regularly maintained to ensure it remains open, visible, and safe for residents.

Opening up Essenhout Avenue, 10 February

A challenging task awaited the team in Essenhout Avenue, where thick vegetation was pushing into the roadway and limiting visibility. Using brushcutters, pangas, and spades, the team cleared and debushed the space leading toward the highway and behind residential properties. A skip arranged through the RLM Waste Department was delivered and fully loaded. Residents supported the effort with donations and refreshments, while a second team worked opposite Wildevy Centre cutting grass in Wildevy and Moepeel Avenue. The focus remains simple: a clean area is a safer area.

Ward 18 residents lead the way in cleaning up East End

Platinum Weekly newspaper | Rustenburg – A small but determined group of Ward 18 (East End) residents is proving that lasting change begins with action. Since 16 August 2025, regular clean-up operations have been carried out across the ward, led primarily by community member Martha Lerm, JC Boardman, DA councillor for Ward 18 Cobus Nortje, Coenie Labuschagne, and Rustenburg Crime Combatting Forum (RCCF) chairperson Kobus Ferreira and his RCCF team.

The clean-ups took place at the following locations:

- 16 August 2025: Corner of Tuin Street and Ridder Street
- 13 September 2025: Partial clean-up of the Buiten Street channel
- 31 October 2025: Park at the corner of Boom and Zending Streets
- 15 November 2025: Stormwater drain at Bethlehem and Dawes Streets
- 17 January 2026: Follow-up clean-up at Tuin and Ridder Streets
- 24 January 2026: Additional clean-up at Tuin and Ridder Streets

While the core team has driven each initiative, many residents have stepped in to assist, including Muktaar Mohamed, Jackie Barnard, Valentine from Fast and Reliable Waste Removal, Sandy Webb, Mia Lerm, Hannes, Jan, Joey (RCCF), Sidney from the Ward Committee, Katlego from Dawes Street, Hendrik and Thea Steyn, Frederick Coetzee, Jonathan van Rensburg, and several others.

Support from local structures has also played a key role. Rustenburg Local Municipality provided a skip at each clean-up for the removal of refuse, branches and grass. The Parks Board donated fuel and line for machinery, collected by Ferreira, while residents such as Elmarie Aucamp, Muktaar Mohamed, JC Boardman, Elma Wilmott, Tonie Pretorius, Flip van der Merwe and Venus Rust regularly supplied water and cold drinks for volunteers.

Progress in Ward 18 is steady but gradual, with several overgrown areas still needing attention. The aim remains clear: to improve visibility and safety for motorists and pedestrians, one area at a time.

As Lerm says, the team remains positive and committed — even if it means tackling just one corner at a time.

HAVE YOUR SAY

Would you turn down a low-paying job now and wait for a higher-paying opportunity later?

With rising living costs and uncertain job markets, many people face tough choices between immediate income and long-term financial security. What would you do — and why?

"No. Something is better than nothing. Even a low-paying job provides income, stability and experience while I look for better opportunities. In today's economy, waiting without any income is simply too risky."

Kitso Ramogari, Rustenburg

"No. You have to start somewhere. A low-paying job can open doors if you work hard and prove yourself. Growth takes time — you start at the bottom and work your way up."

Did you know?

Pit bull-type dogs are responsible for more fatal dog attacks in South Africa than any other breed, according to available statistics. Between 2004 and 2023, 38 of 56 fatal dog-attack deaths in South Africa were caused by pit bulls, far more than any other breed — other breeds accounted for only a few deaths each.

While overall dog bite injuries are common, fatal attacks are rare — but the data shows pit bulls are involved in most of those that are deadly.
