20 FEBRUARY 2026

Platinum Weekly newspaper | Rustenburg – As kidnappings continue to skyrocket across South Africa — with experts warning of thousands of abductions nationwide and criminal syndicates growing ever bolder — the last thing our already overstretched police need is dishonest, shameful dishonesty that waste precious resources and put real victims at risk.

Mike Bolhuis, noted private investigator and expert on kidnapping and violent crimes, has spoken openly about the escalation of kidnappings in South Africa, saying the phenomenon is “well and truly underway,” with cases increasing significantly over the past decade. The motives range from ransom and organised crime to opportunistic express kidnappings – making this one of the most serious crime challenges facing our country today. Yet in Rustenburg, police were confronted not with a real kidnapping but with two shocking cases of staged abductions and fraud.

According to colonel Adèle Myburgh five people have been arrested after allegedly staging fake kidnapping incidents and misleading the authorities in ways that directly undermine genuine public safety efforts.

MARIKANA HOAX

A 41-year-old woman, Sizek Mankantshu, allegedly concocted her own kidnapping with the help of a male accomplice, 41-year-old Morri “Sgubu” Radiete (a Lesotho national – reportedly to extort money from her husband. Evidence revealed she was never abducted and was hiding at the accomplice’s home. Cellphones previously reported stolen in another case were found during the operation. The pair now face charges including defeating the ends of justice, extortion, and illegal immigration.

The two made their first appearance in the Rustenburg Magistrates’ Court on 12 February 2026 and were remanded in custody ahead of a formal bail hearing set for 19 February 2026.

RUSTENBURG RUSE

In another incident, a 36-year-old woman claimed she had been kidnapped on 10 February 2026 from Rustenburg Mall. Ransom was demanded from her family. Police intelligence tracked her to Bokamoso Settlement — unharmed — where the investigation uncovered that she had allegedly defrauded jobseekers by promising employment at a mine and demanding fees of up to R3,500 each.

TWO FAKE KIDNAPPINGS IN RUSTENBURG

- while our nation battles real abductions

Two women, Gomotsegang Litsietsa (28) and Nolitha Nong (54), were arrested on 12 February 2026 and charged with kidnapping after it emerged that they had unlawfully held the victim at a Bokamoso residence while allegedly demanding repayment of funds.

They appeared in the Rustenburg Magistrates’ Court the following day and were released on R2,000 bail each. The matter has been postponed to 9 April 2026.

Major General (Dr) Naidoo did not mince words. He condemned these staged reports as a serious abuse of police resources, stressing that false reporting diverts critical attention away from real victims of violent crime and places unnecessary strain on investigative teams.

“Let the Law Lead, Let Learners Learn: Community Urged to Stay Calm After School Incident”

Platinum Weekly newspaper | Rustenburg – The North West Department of Education has called for calm and patience following a serious incident involving two learners at Waterkloof Hills Primary School, Rustenburg.

In an official media statement released on Monday, 16 February 2026, North West MEC for Education, Viola Motsumi, urged the public to allow due process to unfold without interference. The matter involves two boys – one in Grade 1 and another in Grade 4 – and is being treated as both serious and highly sensitive.

According to the department, the parents of the alleged victim lodged a complaint with the school principal on the morning of 11 February 2026. It is alleged that the incident occurred in the school's bathrooms the previous day. School management responded immediately by suspending the alleged perpetrator pending further processes.

MEC Motsumi emphasised that the Department views the matter with the utmost seriousness and is committed to ensuring that the law takes its course. The Department has also launched its own internal investigation to determine exactly what transpired. In addition, psychosocial support will be provided to affected learners, teachers, and parents to help the school community cope during this challenging time.

A disciplinary hearing involving the alleged perpetrator, who will be accompanied by his parents, is scheduled to take place on Monday, 23 February 2026.

The Department reinforced its broader commitment to safe learning environments, highlighting the importance of standing firmly against bullying and violence in schools.

FROM WARD TO WIDER VOICE

Luan Snyders, Rustenburg councillor elected as DA North West Deputy Provincial Leader

Platinum Weekly | Rustenburg – A familiar face in Rustenburg community spaces has officially taken on a wider leadership role. Luan Snyders, Democratic Alliance councillor for Ward 43, was elected as the North West Deputy Provincial Leader at the party's provincial congress held on Saturday, 7 February 2026 in Potchefstroom. The congress took place at Feather Hills Boutique Hotel, where Snyders' nomination – accepted on 9 January 2026 – was confirmed through election.

For many residents in Rustenburg and surrounding towns, the announcement marked more than a political outcome; it represented continuity in leadership from someone widely known for accessibility and follow-through. Snyders, who has served as a councillor for the past 10 years after entering public office at the age of 23, says the new role is rooted in service rather than status. "It means being a servant-leader who helps hold the organisation together and keeps it moving forward," he said.

Focus on governance and dignity

Asked what he would prioritise first in the North West, Snyders pointed directly to the everyday realities residents face. "Basic services must work – water, roads, refuse removal, and local safety. But just as important, we must restore trust by running municipalities professionally and honestly. When government works, dignity is restored."

What it means for local communities

For towns such as Rustenburg, Koster and Swartruggens, Snyders believes his election must translate into visible action on the ground. "It means stronger DA councillors, better support for branches, and leadership that doesn't disappear between elections. This role must be felt where people live. Leadership is not about promises; it's about opening doors and solving real problems."

Platinum Weekly notes that while Rustenburg is home to many individuals doing important work across different sectors, moments like these become community stories when a local resident steps into a role with broader provincial influence. The measure of this next chapter, as many residents will be watching, will be felt not in titles – but in results.

Bakwena Powers Ahead with R1.33 Billion N4 Upgrade

Helen Joseph Interchange – Eastern elevation, showcasing the newly extended bridge structure forming part of Bakwena’s N4 dualling project in Rustenburg.

Platinum Weekly newspaper | Rustenburg – Motorists travelling along the busy N4 corridor can expect smoother, safer journeys in the years ahead, as the Bakwena Platinum Corridor Concessionaire reports strong progress on its ambitious R1.33 billion N4 dualling project. In a progress update issued on 17 February 2026, Bakwena confirmed that construction is advancing well on the major upgrade between the Buffelspoort and Dr Moroka interchanges in Rustenburg. The project, which began in March 2024, is scheduled over 43 months and will ultimately expand the roadway to two lanes in each direction — a significant step toward easing congestion and improving road safety along this vital transport artery. Bridges completed ahead of schedule In a noteworthy milestone, two major bridge extensions have already been completed ahead of schedule. The Kruger interchange bridge and the Helen Joseph interchange bridge have both been extended to accommodate the new dual carriageway configuration — a remarkable achievement for the engineering and construction teams involved. The early completion of these structures not only demonstrates efficient project management but also brings tangible progress that road users can see taking shape. Once completed, the expanded N4 section will significantly reduce traffic bottlenecks, improve traffic flow, and enhance safety for thousands of daily commuters, freight operators, and visitors travelling through Rustenburg. “We thank our communities and motorists for their patience and cooperation as we undertake these vital improvements to ensure safer and more efficient travel,” said Solly Kganyago, chief operating officer of Bakwena. Motorists are reminded to adhere to posted signage, reduce speed in construction zones, and remain vigilant at all times while travelling through the work areas. As the project continues to move steadily forward, the message from Bakwena is clear: the temporary inconvenience will pave the way for long-term gains — safer roads, reduced congestion, and a stronger transport corridor for the region’s future.

FROM GEELHOUTPARK TO THE BIG STAGE Rustenburg’s Didi shines in Big Brother Mzansi House

Platinum Weekly newspaper | Rustenburg – Born and bred in Geelhoutpark, Rustenburg, Didintle ‘Didi’ Mothobi is proving that big dreams can rise from local streets to national screens. As a contestant on Big Brother Mzansi, Didi is living a dream she has carried for years — and she’s doing it with confidence, heart and unmistakable flair. Big Brother Mzansi, which airs on DSTV Channel 198, is a social experiment that places more than 20 housemates under one roof with no contact with the outside world — no phones, no social media, no family visits. Contestants compete for a life-changing grand prize of R2 million, surviving weekly nominations, evictions and unexpected twists along the way. A dream turned reality In an interview with Didi’s family, we learned that entering the competition was no small feat. Didi submitted an audition video — her very first attempt — and successfully navigated several rounds of callbacks and further auditions before receiving the life-changing call in December. For Didi, the motivation was clear. Passionate about fashion, modelling, design and all things creative, she believes the Big Brother stage offers the exposure and experience she needs to launch herself into the creative industry as a content creator and influencer. “She has always dreamed of this,” her sister, Aobakwe Mothobi, shared. “This platform gives her the opportunity to showcase her personality and talent to the entire country.” Staying true under 24/7 cameras Being watched 24 hours a day might sound overwhelming, but those close to Didi believe she sometimes forgets the cameras are even there. “She’s just being herself,” Aobakwe explained. “She’s comfortable, natural and authentic.” Her strategy from day one? Simply to remain true to who she is. Rather than entering with a complex game plan, Didi hoped South Africa would fall in love with her personality, creativity and competitive spirit. Described as energetic, confident, beautiful, smart and talented, Didi is known as a people’s person with an empathetic heart. She embraces challenges and strives to uplift those around her — qualities that have helped her form connections inside the house. Why Rustenburg should vote Didi’s supporters believe she stands out because she balances focus with respect. She pays attention to what viewers want, while still maintaining her individuality. She values her fellow housemates and avoids unnecessary conflict, making her someone easy to live with — and easy to root for. “She is young and has a promising future,” said Aobakwe Mothobi, Didi’s sister. “I’m hoping that Rustenburg can stand up for one of our own. Even if you are not a Big Brother fan, I believe us producing such talent can pave a great path for young people who are upcoming creatives.” HOW TO VOTE FOR DIDI Supporters can vote via:

- The MyDSTV App (DSTV subscribers can receive up to 10,000 votes depending on their package).
- The Mzansi Magic website.
- By searching “Big Brother Mzansi vote” on any search engine and selecting the official voting link.

Even viewers without a DSTV subscription can vote through the website platform.

Rustenburg’s own Didintle ‘Didi’ Mothobi brings confidence, creativity and Rustenburg pride to the Big Brother Mzansi house.

Three Wards. One Heart. One Mission.

Platinum Weekly newspaper | Rustenburg – Week in and week out, Our Ward Matters (OWM) continues to prove that consistent action makes a visible difference. Through hands-on clean-ups across Wards 16 and 17 — and now expanding into Ward 15 — the team is restoring safety, visibility, and pride in local neighbourhoods.

11 February – Geelhoutpark & Moepel Avenue

On Wednesday, 11 February 2026, the team returned to Geelhoutpark SPAR next to Manuka Pharmacy and the substation. Although previously cleaned, the area still required extensive grass cutting, debushing, and rubbish removal. The team then moved to Moepel Avenue to tackle overgrown grass, continuing the steady progress already visible along Wildevy Avenue and surrounding areas.

12 February – Rivers Area

On Thursday, 12 February, Cllr Tanya Rothman led the clean-up in the Rivers area. Work in Nylapies included cutting grass, clearing overgrown sections, and removing rubbish throughout Ward 17. The sewer line opposite Krokodilrivier 89 and behind number 80 was also cleared, improving visibility and reducing fire risks. Another important step toward maintaining a cleaner, safer community.

Expanding Into Ward 15

A project started in early January has now extended into Ward 15. Work began at Kruger Street and Wildevy Avenue next to the church, moving into Lepelhout Avenue where illegal dumping and squatting were discovered. By Friday, 13 February, the team had reached the highway side from Moepel Avenue near the Kruger Bridge. Overgrown areas concealed makeshift living spaces and large amounts of rubbish. As cleaning progressed, many occupants moved out. Cllr Jean Keyser and Cllr Tanya Rothman joined André van Dyk to highlight concerns in the area. The goal remains clear: restore clean, open, and visible spaces for residents and businesses.

16 February – Safer School Routes

On Monday, 16 February, the team cleared overgrown grass at the corner of Kameelboom Avenue and Kock Street opposite Wendy House Pre-School. High grass had made it difficult to see oncoming traffic when entering Helen Joseph. Sidewalks, the traffic island, the stop sign area, and the open veld up to the substation were cleared — significantly improving safety for parents and residents near Bergsig Academy and Growth Point Church.

Together, we clean. Together, we care. Together, Our Ward Matters.

Our Ward Matters continues transforming Wards 16 and 17 — and is now expanding its clean-up mission into Ward 15, bringing visible change to even more neighbourhoods.

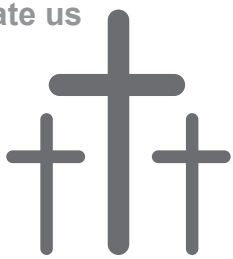

11 February – Another day of action as the team clears overgrowth, removes illegal dumping, and restores safety in the community.

Do you think breeding of pit bull-type dogs should be banned in South Africa to prevent future attacks?

After a 44-year-old woman in Mitchells Plain, Cape Town, was fatally mauled by her own pit bull-type dogs on 28 January 2026, community concern has intensified. Some support a breeding ban, while others argue responsible ownership is the real issue. What is your view?

“Yes. Pit bull-type dogs are too often involved in serious attacks. Banning breeding could reduce the number of high-risk dogs and help prevent tragedies. Community safety should come first.”

Ratanang Manyako, Rustenburg

“No. A ban isn’t the full solution. Stricter regulation, responsible breeding, proper training and stronger enforcement would address the real causes of aggression and improve public safety.”

Daneel Scheepers, Rustenburg

ABSENTEEISM IS QUIETLY COSTING SOUTH AFRICA BILLIONS EACH YEAR... Research by professional services firm PwC has estimated that unplanned employee absence significantly reduces productivity across key sectors. In mining and manufacturing – industries already strained by power cuts and logistical challenges – high absentee rates disrupt operations and increase costs.

Statistics South Africa has also reported persistent workplace health and transport-related challenges that contribute to missed workdays. Economists warn that chronic absenteeism weakens competitiveness, slows growth, and places further pressure on struggling industries – making attendance not just a workplace issue, but a national economic concern.

Klein hartjies, groot liefde by Huis Sering

Platinum Weekly koerant | Rustenburg – Die Graad 3-leerders van Rustenburg Skool vir Buitengewone Onderwys het Woensdag, 11 Februarie 2026, 'n vroeë Valentynsdag-besoek aan die inwoners van Residentia Huis Sering gebring. Die besoek het deel gevorm van die skool se gemeenskapsuitreik en het somer gou harte warm gemaak. Leerders en inwoners het saam ingekleur, gesels en gelag, terwyl hartjie-suigstokkies met groot glimlagte uitgedeel is. Elke leerder is ook met 'n pakkie lekkernye bederf. Die oggend was vir jonk én oud 'n besondere en vreugdevolle ervaring — 'n herinnering dat klein gebare groot verskil kan maak. 'n Spesiale woord van dank aan Liza van Zyl (bestuurderes) en Marinet Koch (maatskaplike werker) van Huis Sering vir hul gasvryheid en ondersteuning.

Graad 3-leerders van Rustenburg Skool vir Buitengewone Onderwys het onlangs Residentia Huis Sering besoek waar hulle saam met inwoners ingekleur en gekuier het — 'n oggend vol liefde, lag en hartjie-suigstokkies.

Ishmael Tau — #RWFLRustenburg star runner who powered through the Pirates 21.1 km half marathon on 24 January 2026, finishing in an impressive 01:37! A proud moment of strength and spirit.

Ishmael's 21.1 km triumph!

Platinum Weekly newspaper | Rustenburg – Ishmael Tau brought home community cheers with a standout performance in the Pirates 21.1 km half marathon, part of the Run/Walk For Life Rustenburg club race series held on 24 January 2026. The event showcased runners of all levels embracing the challenge and comradery of the half-marathon distance, with a lively atmosphere that blended determination, support and good-spirited competition.

RCC Riders Race with Heart at Ride for Sight

Platinum Weekly newspaper | Rustenburg – On Sunday, 15 February 2026, three proud members of Rustenburg Cycling Club (RCC) pitted their strength and spirit against fellow cyclists at the annual Dis-Chem Ride for Sight — one of South Africa's most welcoming and purposeful road cycling events, blending sport with fundraising for retinal research and inclusion for visually impaired riders. This vibrant event, held at Boksburg City Stadium in Gauteng, saw cyclists tackle a variety of routes, drawing everything from elite competitors to enthusiastic recreational riders — all united by a joyful atmosphere and a meaningful cause.

A proud moment for Rustenburg Cycling Club as members Alta and Danie Lombaard take on the Ride for Sight with determination and camaraderie.

Johan Roos who did very well after his falling accident last year — he climbed back on the bicycle with no hesitation or fear.
